Don’t miss our masquerade themed annual Member Appreciation Gala on October 27, 2018.
Dear Members,

Fall is my favorite time of the year, especially at the Harvard Club of Boston. Our Club calendar is filled with a wide variety of events. Our annual black tie member gala on October 27th promises to be a great gathering, so let your creativity shine with our Masquerade theme! Also, our Thanksgiving Day Buffet sells out quickly, so make your reservations right away.

I have been a member for a very long time, and I truly consider many of the Club employees and members of my extended family. The radiant smile of George Durant has welcomed so many of us over the years, and we celebrated his retirement and great service to the Club at a recent luncheon. I witnessed many a teary eye as members and staff reminisced about the impact that George has had on their experiences at the Club. We wish George a long and happy retirement!

The Task Force that has been assembled to evaluate options for renovations to the athletic building adjacent to the Back Bay Clubhouse has been hard at work. We have vetted a list of potential development partners, and will be issuing a Request for Proposal in October. More details to follow.

As always, I welcome your comments and suggestions and can be reached at president@harvardclub.com.

Sincerely,
Karen M. Van Winkle, President

Signorello Estate Red Wine Dinner

Tuesday, October 16, 2018
6:00 pm Registration
6:15 pm Dinner
Downtown Clubhouse

We are pleased to invite you to attend a four-course dinner designed by our chefs to complement some of the exquisite wines from Signorello Estate.

Ray Signorello, Sr. and his wife Hope planted the first grape vines in 1980, establishing the Signorello Estate. This multigenerational winery is known for producing some of Napa’s finest handcrafted wines.

Last October, Signorello Estate was heavily impacted by the Atlas Peak Fire, but luckily the vineyards themselves escaped major destruction. The family plans to rebuild and reopen the estate in 2021.

Price per person: $85 (plus *Club charge & tax), includes food and wine pairings. Due to the complexity of the menu and wine pairings, accommodation of dietary preferences are limited.

Cancellation date is Thursday, October 11.

SPRINGFIELD CONFIDENTIAL

If you are fan of “The Simpsons,” don’t miss this fun-filled presentation by Mike Reiss ‘81, a thirty year writer for the show, featuring rare cartoon clips and scandalous tales from behind the scenes of the long-running show. Reiss’s memoir Springfield Confidential also discusses the series’ Harvard connection: forty-two of its writers, and one director, are Lampoon alumni. Reiss ran Season 4, which Entertainment Weekly called “the greatest season of the greatest show in history.”

In 2006, Reiss received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Animation Writers Caucus and he has written jokes for such comedy legends as Johnny Carson, Joan Rivers and Garry Shandling. Reiss has won four Emmys and a Peabody Award and Springfield Confidential “was an A.V. Club “Best Books of June” 2018 selection.

“This entertaining book is certain to resonate with devoted “Simpsons” viewers and even those who only watch the show sporadically. Who, after all, wouldn’t want to know why the characters are yellow or which of the nation’s many Springfields can claim the Simpson family as its own?” – Herald & Review

PUBLIC POLICY BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Friday, October 12, 2018
8:00 am—9:00 am
Downtown Clubhouse

The October selection is Our Time Has Come: How India is Making its Place in the World by Alyssa Ayres.

A sweeping analysis of India’s remarkable recent transformation into one of the world’s biggest economies and militaries, Ayres ably charts the country’s emergence from the straightjacket of socialist policies. Her amalgam of applied history, contemporary geopolitical analysis and prescriptive policy guidelines on how to deal with India is a brilliantly researched, academically robust and yet easy-to-read book on contemporary India.

Optional a la carte breakfast service will be available in The Crimson starting at 7:00 am. Members and guests are welcome.*

*Participation fee for non-members (must be registered as a guest by a member): $5, includes discussion and coffee.

Registration is required for this complimentary event.

CEO Breakfast Discussion with Moderator Larry Gulko
Join us for an inspirational conversation with Joi Gordon, CEO of Dress for Success and Lizanne Kindler, CEO of Talbots. Brand strategist and entrepreneur Larry Gulko will moderate the discussion.

Joi Gordon took over leadership of Dress for Success Worldwide in 2002. The organization is recognized as a leader in empowering women in their economic and social development and reaches women across the globe providing access to resources and tools they need to succeed in the workplace and achieve lifelong economic independence.

The organization has expanded from a singular brick and mortar location to a global entity, spanning across 160 cities in 30 countries, serving over one million women.

Lizanne Kindler is CEO of Talbots, a multi-channel retailer of women's apparel, shoes and accessories that was established in Hingham, Massachusetts in 1947. Ms. Kindler returned to Talbots as President in August of 2012 when the company was purchased by private equity firm, Sycamore Partners. She was promoted to CEO nine months later.

Under Ms. Kindler’s leadership, the Talbots brand has reclaimed its rightful place as an iconic American fashion brand. The company is now focused on growth, through new stores, new concepts and new product categories. And they remain, as always, dedicated to strengthening their relationship with one of the most loyal customer bases in the industry.

This event is presented by The Harvard Club in partnership with the Harvard Business School Association of Boston.

Price per person: $18 (plus *Club charge & tax) includes continental breakfast and discussion.

Cancellation date for this event is Friday, October 26, 2018.

CHEF’S CORNER

It’s my pleasure to announce that we have a new member on our team at the Back Bay Clubhouse, Anthony DiClemente, our new Veritas Manager. As our General Manager, Steve Cummings, mentioned in his letter, Anthony brings many years of experience with him, from some top private Clubs. Anthony is working with Chef Adam and his team as they roll out a new Veritas fall menu, which will include a wonderful seafood risotto with mussels, clams, haddock, shrimp and freshly shelled lobster and a center cut tenderloin with black garlic and smoked tomato polenta. We recommend you try Chef Adam’s roasted beets with ash goat cheese and marcona almonds, which is getting rave reviews.

To view our complete menu click here.

The next time you are in Veritas please stop by and meet Anthony DiClemente.

We look forward to seeing you at the Club.

Downtown Clubhouse

Join former NFL player Troy Brown for lunch at the Downtown Clubhouse. Members and guests who attend this series will have the chance to discuss and analyze past weeks games on film as well as other relevant NFL topics.

Price per person: $30 (plus *Club charge & tax). Price includes lunch buffet and non-alcoholic beverages.

It’s your office, away from the office... but with cocktails.

ClubPub is a dedicated member workspace during the day with comfortable seating and workstations. You can jump on a conference call or even host an impromptu meeting, while enjoying complimentary coffee and tea.

We open the bar at 4:00 pm and you can keep working or catch the game on our big screen TVs. Casual pub-style food service starts at 5:00 pm Tuesday through Friday, with lunch service Saturdays.

Come by, check it out and get to work or play in ClubPub.

“WWI: AN AMERICAN MARTYR” FILM SCREENING AND DISCUSSION WITH DIRECTOR ED NEF ‘55 & PRODUCER DOUG HARTLEY ‘55

Tuesday, November 13, 2018
6:30 pm Reception
7:00 pm Discussion & Video Presentation
Back Bay Clubhouse

Two days following Veterans Day, please join us for a special viewing of Ed Nef ‘55’s documentary “WWI: An American Martyr,” highlighting the honorable life and legacy of Charles Hartley, uncle of Doug Hartley ‘55, Nef’s college classmate and fellow Foreign Service officer. Mr. Nef and Mr. Hartley will introduce the film, offer insights into the experiences of their young subject within the broader context of World War I, and discuss the making of the film.

As a young man originally from the Boston area but living in Great Britain, Charles Hartley did whatever he could to join the fighting forces (US troops were not yet engaged). He succeeded by joining the legendary British Coldstream Guards, who trained him and sent him to Belgium and France. It was in La Fontaine, Cambrai, France that his journey ended, when he was shot in the head and killed. After the war, his father returned to the site of his death and constructed a memorial in his honor, with the support of the local French community. The film captures this community’s continuing commemoration of battle and sacrifice.

Director and producer Ed Nef entered the US Foreign Service, serving in Washington DC, Senegal, Guatemala, Colombia, Canada and the Peace Corps, followed by his service in the US Senate.

Registration is required for this complimentary event. Click here to register.
